

Jeop-Birdy Round "ANSWERS"

	Bye-Bye Birdie	Bird Brained	Save the Birds	Bird Words	Potpourri
$100	This word is what birds become when there aren't any more of them left.	The smallest bird in the world is one of these.	If you are out hiking and come upon a bird's nest, this is something you shouldn't do.	This is another word for the mouth of a bird.	Bird watchers use these to bring birds into closer view.
$200	Only 100 years ago, thousands of these birds could be seen in the skies. Over-hunting quickly drove them to extinction.	The largest egg in the world comes from this bird.	Birds often fly into these "invisible" structures, found everywhere from skyscrapers to your house.	The claws of a bird of prey are called this.	The seasonal movement of birds from one place to another is called this.
$300	Because it had never seen humans and therefore had no fear of them, this large flightless pigeon is now extinct.	One of the fastest birds in the world is this one.	Use of these chemicals has led to declines in the populations of many bird species.	When birds lose old feathers and grow new ones it is called this.	These books are often used to help identify birds.
$400	This is one of the major causes of extinction in the world.	This part of a bird is made up of the same material as our fingernails and hair.	These domestic predators kill hundreds of millions of birds each year.	The name of this type of nest, made by woodpeckers, is also what a hole in your tooth is called.	In order to avoid competition, this is the reason birds migrate.
$500	This bird, the U.S. symbol, was almost driven to extinction by the use of a pesticide called DDT.	Associated with the quote "Nevermore," these black birds may be among the most intelligent.	This Act is designed to help species of wildlife whose populations are in trouble.	This is another word for the feathers of a bird.	This is made up of food, water, shelter, and space.

Jeop-Birdy Round "QUESTIONS"

	Bye-Bye Birdie	Bird Brained	Save the Birds	Bird Words	Potpourri
$100	What is extinct?	What is a hummingbird?	What are collecting, touching, or disturbing birds or their nests?	What is the bill or beak?	What are binoculars?
$200	What is the Passenger Pigeon?	What is an Ostrich?	What are windows?	What are talons?	What is migration?
$300	What is the Dodo?	What is a Peregrine Falcon?	What are pesticides?	What is molting?	What are field guides?
$400	What is habitat loss?	What are beak and feathers?	What are cats?	What is a cavity?	What is to find food?
$500	What is the Bald Eagle?	What are Ravens?	What is the Endangered Species Act?	What is plumage?	What is habitat?

Double Jeop-Birdy Round "ANSWERS"

	Where in the World	Bird Songs	Bird Symbols	State Birds	Amazing Adaptations
$200	This pole is home to penguins, not polar bears.	Nicknamed "Rockin'" in a popular song, this bird's own song is considered mellow.	U.S. Symbol.	Illinois.	This special feature of birds is shared with no other living animal.
$400	This continent is home to the Ostrich, the largest bird in the world.	Seen singing on TV by millions of children, this large yellow bird is of an undetermined species.	Canadian baseball team.	Colorado.	Baby birds develop in these.
$600	The largest species of this nectar-sipping bird is found in the Andes.	Four and twenty of these were baked in a pie.	Not a real bird of prey, but Seattle's football team.	New Jersey.	Birds do this to find food, escape from predators, and travel from one place to another.
$800	This is where most of Colorado's migratory birds fly for the winter.	If this bird does not sing, Papa's gonna buy you a diamond ring.	Symbol for peace.	Pennsylvania.	This is why some male birds are brightly colored.
$1000	This country is home to kiwi fruit and Kiwi birds.	This bird is always "paired" with a tree in a popular Christmas song.	This bird is pictured on Mexico's flag.	Louisiana.	Vultures rely on this sense, but for most birds is not well developed.

Double Jeop-Birdy Round "QUESTIONS"

	Where in the World	Bird Songs	Bird Symbols	State Birds	Amazing Adaptations
$200	What is the South Pole (also known as Antarctica)?	What is the American Robin?	What is a Bald Eagle?	What is the Northern Cardinal?	What are feathers?
$400	What is Africa?	Who is Big Bird?	What are the Bluejays?	What is the Lark Bunting?	What are eggs?
$600	What is a Hummingbird (Giant Hummingbird)?	What are Blackbirds?	What are the Seahawks?	What is the American Goldfinch?	What is flying?
$800	What is western Mexico?	What is a Mockingbird?	What is a Dove?	What is the Ruffed Grouse?	What is attracting females?
$1000	What is New Zealand?	What is a Partridge?	What is the Crested Caracara?	What is the Brown Pelican?	What is smell?

Final Round

Moderator gives the final "answer": The creature that many consider to be the ancient ancestor to modern birds.

Players guess the question: What is archaeopteryx?